Tuesday Study Club Holds Last Meet of Season

A MAY breakfast at the home of the retiring president, Mrs. D. W. Dismont, of 207 Wildwood court, yesterday marked the close of the program season for members of the Tuesday Study Club. A bowl of tulips in pastel shades decorated the table in the dining room and vases holding single tulips in the same shade contrasted the smaller tables arranged throughout the living room. Mrs. Dismont, who presided, gave a report of the annual convention of the Ohio Federation of Women's Clubs last week in Sandusky. Quotations from Shakespeare were given in response to the call and Mrs. Carl Werley gave a paper on "The Women of Shakespeare's Plays." Some Women of the 19th

Attractive Indoor Picnic Marks Close of Season for Club

THE THREE ACTS of the season for the Marion Study Club were held at the home of Mrs. A. H. Ford, 1111 E. 1st street, last evening. The club members gathered for a dinner and then for an indoor picnic. The evening was spent with cards and games. Screen Stars keep youthful Charm

"I'm over 40" says Florence Reed. "With a woman it's how old she looks, not how old she is that counts," says Florence Reed, famous stage star. Stage and screen stars know how to stay young—how to keep youthful freshness year after year. And practically every prominent star shares this secret.

Visit to Metropolitan Museum To Be Highlights in Free Trip for Students

A visit to the Metropolitan museum will be one of the highlights of the New York City stay of the 14 travel contest winners. The museum is the principal art museum in the United States and is one of the finest in the world.

The travelers will stay a half day at the museum and have luncheon there. The museum was organized in 1880 with a legislative appropriation of $500,000. The total cost of the completed museum is estimated at $20,000,000.

Built in 1879

The first home of the museum was in the Dutchworth building on Fifth avenue. The first museum building in Central park was completed in 1879. The central part of the fifth avenue front was completed in 1902 at a cost of $1,200,000 to the city. In 1904 a further appropriation of $1,500,000 was made for the north part of the front. Further appropriations were made in 1907 giving the museum $7,400,000 a year over a period of 10 years.

The nucleus of the department of paintings is a collection by Dutch and Flemish masters acquired in 1871 for $116,180.27. The department of Egyptian antiquities was organized in 1906 and has conducted many excavations at El Kharga and Thebes that have enriched the collection. The museum is a place of interest and cooperation with universities and public schools. It offers lectures and seeks to promote the diffusion of art.

The travel party will visit other museums in the same way, rounding out one of the most educational days of the five-day free trip.

To See Ghettos

Another New York sight will be the ghettos on the lower east side. References show that ghettos probably in from the Italian borgehts or little towns.

Originally the name was applied to the quarters set apart for Jews in several cities of Italy and Bohemia but today the term is properly applied in speaking of the part of any city where Jews are numerous.

The ghetto originated in Rome in the time of Pope Paul IV who first compelled the Jews to dwell within an enclosure set apart for them. The practice was discontinued in 1885.

The New York City ghetto of today has furnished the back ground for stories by some of the best authors of the day and its meaning has been pictured in the moving picture screens many

FESTIVALS HELD TO BUILD FISH DAMS

By United Press
AUSTIN, Tex.—Fish dam festivals are being held on stream banks throughout Texas this spring as four foot dams are constructed to preserve the state's supply of fish.

Blinging cement trowels and ladders and spotters are operated in building the small dams under the supervision of an engineer sent out by the state fish commission. Nearly 200 such are to be built creating ponds which are stocked from state fish hatcheries.

COMPANY FILES INJUNCTION ACTION

To Restrain Former Employee from Covering Old Route.

An injunction action of the City Ice & Fuel Co. to restrain a former employee, who had been heard by Judge in common pleas court, from covering the company's route, was brought yesterday, and an order restraining the employee from covering the route was granted. It charges that the employee, who is now in the employ of another company, is using his "peculiar skill" acquired as a former employee of the City Ice & Fuel Co. to cover the route of a competitor.

The form of Clark & Arter, attorneys for the City Ice & Fuel Co., was granted.

When Building, Savings & Loan Association was granted judgment against Frederick and others in a common pleas case, the association proceeded.

to help your favorite contestant in the Travel Contest

This great May Suit Sale has been specially planned for the final windup of the Travel Contest, to give you the greatest suit value you have ever had and at the same time—

Give Your Favorite Contestant from 1600 to 2600 Votes

THE comparative prices used in this advertisement are not 1919 prices or 1931 prices but Spring 1932 prices on Clothcraft DeLuxe Suits. Every year before getting ready for Fall production the makers of Clothcraft Suits CLOSE OUT their remaining made-up Spring stocks at a decided discount usually this offer does not come until considerably later in the season. But this year conditions have made it possible for us to get this saving for you much earlier than usual. (Right in time for the last NINE days of the TRAVEL CONTEST.)

Here's the story in a nut shell: Our Clothcraft $15.00 and $19.50 suits have been selling in tremendous quantities causing a decided slowing up in the sale of the Clothcraft De Luxe suits even though they were correspondingly at great values at $22.50 to $35.00. As a result the makers had an over production of De Luxe suits and were disposed to sacrifice them right in the very heart of the spring season.

KNOWING our tremendous volume, they gave us first choice of the cream of their stocks. When we saw the suits we could not resist the offer...when you see them you'll say the same. These suits have just arrived in time to go on Sale Thursday; we've added many Clothcraft and Hart Schaffner & Marx Suits from our regularly purchased stocks giving you Presnet election officials were asked by county election board officials to telephone early results of yesterday's voting to the election board headquarters when the ball lots had been counted. Most precinct officials found difficulty in pronouncing the names of several of the candidates. Among the puzzlers arising from their pronunciation were the telephone number of the supreme court clerk, the name of the secretary of state, the candidate for secretary of state. One woman circumvented the difficulty of pronouncing the difficult names by referring to them as the next one or the one after so-and-so.

the murderer. But in past thousands of centuries of human brutality it may have been useful eliminating the naturally murderous and otherwise dangerous types.

JAPAN ANNOUNCES as permanent policy an effort to limit airplane carriers among nations. She considers this weapon most dangerous to her cities. Japan also objects to flying decks on cruisers able to carry airplanes with in striking distance of enemy cities. United States cruisers soon to be built will carry thirty planes each.

Japan would not object as far as the United States is concerned. Her intelligent statesmen know that our policy is defense never attack.

Prices of 1832
Out Goes Our Gold
Demands First Degree.

—BY ARTHUR BRIDGEMAN.
THE AMAZING NEWS here is that in some places food prices have gone back to the levels of 1832.

In Texas you may buy eggs for 7 cents a dozen. Ten and two tenths cents is the average egg price over the country. You buy butter for 17 cents in Tennessee; chickens for 9 cents a pound in North Dakota; the country's average is 12 1/2 cents. Lamb costs 42 cents a pound in Texas and Montana. In Montana mules cost $34 a horse $31.

IN THE PAST WEEK $37,000,000 American gold has gone to Europe. Today the steamship Flota will carry away at least $11,000,000 gold nearly all going to France a little to Holland.

Since gold is fetish and the lack of it a calamity why not keep the gold that is here. We did it in the war with an amazing success.

That need not mean going off the gold basis. We can pay in gold inside the United States and for export gold exports. The President might announce to the other powers.

We're going to keep all the gold we've got some four billions and we propose to gather at least twice as much more until we own 90 per cent of the world's total gold supply. If you don't think we can do it watch us.

Our idea is to stop foolish shooting at the dollar and foolish talk about gold. You can't say we're off the gold basis if we are sitting on 90 per cent of all the gold on earth.

COULD IT BE? Might it be just barely possible that in spite of denials by our best minds there are useful possibilities in certain kinds of public ownership?

John H. Perry who owns news papers and other things and seems to make them go has just bought on Main street Jacksonville Fla. 500 feet of real estate frontage that is enough to make real estate men in New York Chicago and some other places turn pale and shudder violently.

Mr. Perry in reply to a question explains his purchase thus: Jacksonville believes in municipal ownership owns its city light and power from which it makes a million and a half profits yearly used to reduce taxes which has so far more than paid for itself and contributes a quarter of a million a year to reduce taxes.

Offhand the "best minds" might say, "That's bolshivism but they may be mistaken."

WILLIAM TURNER, a young murderer 22 years old, insists on pleading guilty to murder in the first degree, although the judge offered him an opportunity to escape death by pleading second degree. The manner and talk of the young criminal showed new depths in the criminal mind.

When the judge asked the man not to bring charges against his parents by pleading second degree the child said:

The Alibi Method

Last week by way of celebrating his 50th birthday Friedrich Wilhelm Hohenzollern once the hated crown prince of Germany sent a message to the United States. In it among many things of interest was the following statement on the Treaty of Versailles.

This dictate of Versailles from which the whole world is suffering and the split from which it emanated are in the last analysis responsible for all the disaster of today. From enough you Americans did no sign it but—and you will pardon me for saying this—you have made it possible and you continue to tolerate the impossible conditions created by it.

The reader may wonder whether the former crown prince is laughing at Americans or with them. Certainly the joke is there though his malicious intention possibly is not present. Can anyone first the Treaty of Versailles who can deny that it is but a single incident in the settlement of the war? The treaty did not spring out of nothing. It was one effect of a cause so big that its influence will be felt by countless generations. Perhaps the onerous hitless prince hasn't succeeded in getting his feet on the earth yet even at the age of 50 years. Wars cost money. The world is paying through the nose right now.

It is in the second sentence however that the real humor lies and perhaps it had better be called unconscious humor in view of the rich Hohenzollern's gray hair. The United States continues to tolerate the impossible conditions created by the Treaty of Versailles.
 Phase Mr. Hohenzollern it's too funny—the United States continuing to tolerate anything in Europe. Either those reports about your ambition to be set back on the throne under the auspices of Adolf Hitler, are true and you're trying to exercise the alibi method for the benefit of the home folks or Americans have been entertaining the wrong idea about their popularity abroad. If it's really a case of this nation tolerating Europe's monkey shins with the war debts let's collect them and wipe out the national deficit.

Occasionally there are reports of gold discoveries and the consequent rush of prospectors in the West. No matter how lacking a man's energy and ambition may be the faintest possibility of getting rich quick stirs him to action.

When Life Is Better

There's a first time for everything and few will deny that last Sunday was the first day of summer for most Ohioans—the first day this year of course.

Other days of spring have been warm but Sunday was a day of sun warmth that left its mark on tender skin. Many were the hands that were occupied Monday with feeling of in-carnadine foreheads and many were the thoughts occupied by good natured curses for the intemperate fondness of summer weather that makes fools stand in the sun too long the first time.

Humble meals popped open again and were filled with happy if sometimes silly couples.
 The farmer's property became unsafe again for the first time since the last apples disappeared. Trees weakened by months of illness chose to ape business definition and many were the linked pilgrimages to be seen by the side of the road.

Roadside stands offered rebuttal. If nothing else filling stations became empty and cash registers clicked merrily. Less than the usual number of people met down in accidents and there is hope that an indifferent nation may have been sobered to reality by the events of last year—hope but not much reason. And the trees were out the air smelted good and one—at least one—poor fellow proved that there is an exception to the rule that life is better in the good old summertime by admitting that his hay fever or what passes for hay fever in May had started its annual discour-nement of life.

A grand jury report listing 33 indictments including several for murder and holdups indicates that Marion is metropolitan in at least one respect even though it may not be something to inspire a feeling of pride and enthusiasm.

It is a difficult matter for a country to select the most effective method of liquor control and after all countries are not much different in that respect than many of their citizens who lack ability to limit their drinking to moderation.

Spring fever ordinarily has a tendency to make a man want to quit work but this year the symptom is just the reverse with the long list of citizens who have plenty of energy and no place to put it into use.

First Round Ended.

Marion county's 1932 primary election has passed into history and voters will have to pore them entry lists for the final and deciding ballot in November.

The race has been six months in which to make known their merits and in which the electorate can determine who in its judgment are the best men for the jobs. Naturally there will be a full in local and state political activities at least until the presidential nominations have been made. Then will come the fireworks and the display of fireworks presents to be of a spectacular variety.

All indications point to one of the liveliest and most interesting campaigns in years and Marion county will not be one of the most resistant spots in the political picture although as a rule this community is not as turbulent or such matters as some other communities.

Pleading of the numerous applicants for nominations in yesterday's county primary there are not nearly as proportionately large number of losers. But if they measure up to the best type of sportsmanship they are good losers with no feeling of animosity toward the victors or the candidates who won out.
 Unless an officer seeks possession this faculty of accepting defeat gracefully, he has no proper place in the game of politics.

Fall is cheap so even if congressmen are a bit leaguerous it can be regarded as further indication of their failure to help out the economy program.

In Everything but Name.

A resolution in the hands of the house foreign affairs committee asks authorization of an appropriation by the United States for expenses of the World court which is somewhat surprising in consideration of this government's apparent unwillingness to let the court attach any strings to free Americans. Those interested in vigorous mischief for its own sake may well wonder what they are missing behind committee room doors.

The situation's possibilities are enriched by the fact that virtually the only obligation incurred by a nation joining the World court is a contribution to a system familiar to most Americans. Furthermore any nation which desires may settle its case out of court whether a contribution has been made or not.
 The court is a convenient instrument, for use when its supporters want to use. Add the fact that non-members also may use the court and the scene is set for certain speculations.
 Would not the United States with one of its citizens sitting in the court and its constant having appropriated money for the court's expenses be a member for all practical purposes? Would not the house of representatives be violating the constitutional requirement that treaties be ratified by two thirds of the senate however if it were to weaken this nation into the courts back door by an appropriation? On the other hand since the contribution is the most important thing about World court membership does it matter which committee—authorization of the protocols by the senate or passage of an appropriation bill by the house?

There is division of opinion on the answers another question is more to the point. Are Americans willing that approximately $54,000 of their money be appropriated for the World court under legislative conditions which would lead inevitably to trouble and a refusal to accept the court's authority? The answer as the house foreign affairs committee probably has discovered is by its own consideration of the question is a big, round, unqualified No.

Some of the Hollywood actresses have attained considerable note because of their amazingly extensive supply of clothes and infact its influence that one occasionally has as many dresses as former husbands.

Official Measurements

All the signs of the times are not discouraging, unwilling as most gloom wallowers are to look at anything but darkness. There is for instance a clear sign that the popular conception of proper measurements for determining the eligibility of public officials may be revised for the better.

Preceding and following passage of the 18th amendment the fact of a candidate's fitness of such blithely qualified him in many communities. The result was that many officials otherwise incapable were given the responsibility of handling the public's business more by cause they appeared to satisfy one relatively unimportant requirement.

Realization that there is a current trend toward the same folly although under a different name has been disturbing many critical observers of government lately. Men are seeing support on their views concerning prohibition granted that this will be a favorable year for anti prohibition candidates—in coming years with other years at least—many men will be nominated this spring and elected next November not because they have proved themselves capable of filling the offices they seek but because they are on the right side of the prohibition issue.

This is due in large part to the public's confessed inability to sort out suitable candidates in a large field. Unable to measure each official's qualifications voters usually interested in only one phase of the complex matter involved, they have resorted to a method of measurement not much more accurate than involving black haired candidates to the exclusion of all others. Prohibition is only one of many issues important as it may be.

That the extreme danger to effective and honest government in depending too heavily on an office seeker's ability to measure up to certain marks on the prohibition standard is becoming apparent to an increasing number of citizens is a good sign. After all an official's opinion on prohibition has little bearing on anything but prohibition which is only one of the nation's important problems.

There are many critics of the farm board's policy of stringing up surplus wheat but the chances are not any of the fault finders are found in Marion. Here a wheat wing flour made from the board's donations.

"GO AROUND TO THE BACK DOOR."

Editorial Opinion.

BILLIONS IN THE RED
 It is difficult to disclose the state of the nation's finances in some centers of population one to wonder if city voters are really blind and dumb and paralyzed.

New York City voters today the astounding sum of $1 billion dollars. That is more than $1 for every man woman and child in the city.

Before the war the net debt of the United States was just a trifle over one billion.
 But figures tabulated in 1929 place the entire indebtedness of all the 48 states of the Union at 35 per cent less than New York City's total.

And yet there are supposedly intelligent citizens who will say that graft is a necessary adjunct of efficient municipal administration.
 In Illinois Big Bill Thompson during whose reign as mayor Chicago reached financial straits comparable to those of New York has resigned politics and has won for his protégé Len Small the Republican nomination for the governorship.

It has been too harsh after all.
 Chicago's voters may have been blind and dumb but they are not paralyzed.
 When good old Jimmy Walker their Tammany and chieftain appears on his mountain streaks they can still applaud and stretch their noses in his path.

The analysis may come a bit later—Des Moines Tribune.

MENTAL AGES

It is often more than discovered that the average grown up American has the mind of a three year old child. Might there not be a kind of way of saying the same thing? Why not say that in the United States the average intellectual attains maturity at 13.

In fact of being intellectual maturity at 13 and carrying in itself a touch of the morose who never grows up we should be cheered up by the vision of a nation carrying in itself a part of Mozart who was a fully developed genius at the age of 12. Consider how unjust it would have been to report of Macaulay that at the age of 20 he showed no greater passion for a thing than he did at the age of 10. When the truth is that nobody at any time could have done worse more fiercely than the three year old boy did. Nobody ever thinks of throwing the horse for attacking his full growth at three years or the elephant for stopping to grow at seven years and comparing them to their shame with the giant sequoia for a couple of thousand years.

If the people who voted in the California primaries were only 13 years old in truth to whom should the voting have been restricted? Surely not to the wicked old men with a mental age of about 10 who we understand are the cause of all the evil in the world.

Of course it will come hard at first to accept the fact that the wisdom with which the grown up men rule their lives is the wisdom of a child of 13. But why not once the initial shock is over. Once upon a time wisdom was thought to come with the slow ripening of old years. The older a man was the wiser he was. This legend is now exploded. Tired and old men at 70 are not wiser, but on the contrary far less wise than boys and a nation's young men at 18. But if we have refused to change to fall back another five years to 13. We might go back even another two years to approximately the age of a little English girl named Alice Liddell. How many of us today would scorn to lower ourselves to her 10-year old mind level when she listened to the nonsense of a young mathematician named Dodgson? Said it is to think of the millions of English and American adults who in the course of the last 70 years have been influenced by the March Hare and the Lizard burman and other products of an ill-fated child mentality.—New York Times

German Change Living Habits.

BY WALTER DIETZEL

International News Service Correspondent Berlin May 11—The proletarianization of the German middle class is progressing at an amazing speed.

Of some five million people who changed their apartments around April 1 following an emergency decree which nullified old contracts and allowed the tenants to give notice at least 5 per cent moved into cheaper smaller places in order to save money.

By giving up their old pompous gorgeously furnished high-class to modest three or four room apartments they had to surrender much of the old glory in the shape of numerous pieces of more or less antiquated but still valuable furniture.
 Here they sold them if possible or they bequeathed them to friends lacking furniture but in most cases they simply presented them to the Winter Relief a charity organization which in turn distributed them among the poor.

Almost nobody was able to make money of the surplus property for which there was neither room nor accommodation at the new prices.

A reduction of the staff of servants followed automatically with the result that after April 1 in Berlin alone about 10,000 man servants and maids lost their jobs to increase the ever growing army of unemployed.

To American readers it may sound like an unheard of luxury to keep a maid but conditions in Germany are widely different. The average maid does not get more than 50 marks a month plus board and lodging. It is therefore much cheaper to keep a maid who usually does the laundry and all house work than to have a laundry done outside the house.

The rest of the household budget has also been cut severely. There are thousands of families for whom theater tickets have become an unknown luxury and many intellectuals among the middle class are content with reading the reviews of the plays in their newspapers.

The educational item in household budgets in most cases has been eliminated altogether.
 Most people can't afford to pay the standard price for new fiction and in order to read at all subscribe to one of the numerous private lending libraries which have sprung up in cities like mushrooms.

Thus thousands of families of the middle class are muddling through either patiently hoping for better times or falling on any propto the propaganda of radical parties.

Scarlet Fever Spread Alarming

BY ROYAL S. COLFMAN D.D.

There has been an alarming increase in the number of cases of scarlet fever reported from all over the country within the last few months. Fortunately most of the cases were of a mild form.

Scarlet fever is a highly contagious disease it is often neglected and in this way is quickly spread from one child to another. Quarantine is necessary for all cases. Children who recover from scarlet fever should not be permitted to return to school without presentation of a physician's certificate.

The disease comes on suddenly and the first symptoms noted are vomiting sore throat headache and fever. The rash of scarlet fever appears within twenty four hours and is first seen on the neck and upper part of the chest.
 It is bright red in color and gradually spreads over the entire body. The rash lasts from three to ten days and then fades. After this the skin peels in scales or large pieces producing what is called desquamation.

Mild cases of scarlet fever require little treatment but severe cases need bed and isolation.
 But always bear in mind that mild cases are quite as contagious as severe cases. Though the treatment of scarlet fever in the mild form is simple the disease should never be neglected or its importance underestimated. Often the heart and kidneys become involved even in mild forms of scarlet fever simply because the disease is not treated and the diet and amount of exercise are not limited.

Scarlet fever is dangerous because of the frequent complications that can in this disease. The heart kidney eyes and glands may become involved in the early forms of this disease. When the fever is high special medications and careful nursing are of the utmost importance.

Large quantities of water should be taken.
 It may be given in the form of lemonade or iced tea. Liquid milk is also good. The disease is contagious in the early stages of the disease. Later on it is not so contagious. Add to the diet daily citrus fruit and where necessary citrus should be given.

When the fever has subsided and desquamation has taken place the child should be bled with thin slices of lemon juice containing bicarbonate of soda to refresh and relieve the itching. The diet should not be lifted until desquamation is completed and there are no skin eruptions or scales from the mouth.

Considerable rest and work is being done to find an effective way of giving immunization to protect children from scarlet fever. Similar to the S.D.P. in diphtheria the Dick test determines whether or not an individual is an adult. If the fever is not a child's has not a child's fever. If your child has not a child's fever consult with your physician at once to get word of health.

ANSWERS TO HEALTH QUERIES

Q—How can I get rid of callouses from the soles of my feet?
 A—If I find it difficult to restate your question and if it is not a self-addressed envelope.

Q—What should I do about a sore on the finger?
 A—This is a self-addressed question and I will not answer it.

Q—What should I do about a girl of 23 5 ft.

New York Day by Day

BY O. O. MINTYRE

New York, May 11—Billy Seaman was one of the town's younger stars who always was found where lights blazed.
 His vivid figure in Broadway's favorable personable he was by day a business man but by night an actor. An earlier pal of Jimmy Walker was most a constant companion during the mayor's building boom.
 When the mayor was building his fences his penthouse "Skye" Waverly Place was the scene of many evenings of revels from the world of stage screen and literature.

One might drop in any evening the cognoscenti in full flower. Andrew man fell in with level, Phylippine and after a whirlwind col-were married. Their devotion became a of the White Way fore.

An evening recently Seaman was per-to come out of his long domestic seclusion attend a stag luncheon in the Bronx.
 It was an evening of hale frolic and And Seaman tiring of it early excu-to go to his club to write letters.

He left word for a friend at the club call for him there and drive him home. friend got the wrong address and front of one of the take joints and of an outside capper if Seaman was was told he was but had stepped out ment and would be back.

The friend ordered a round of several percentage ladies for sale. Seaman suspicious of the place and a se-non appearance asked for his check. presented with one for $86 and after a argument settled for $20.

Emerging he found Seaman leaving his

A Washington Daybook

BY HERBERT THUMMER

Washington May 11—Whatever else Tom Heflin impressed on those gentlemen of the senate whom he refers to as my one or comrades his recent appearance to argue election contest perhaps left no doubt in the minds that he is as great a showman as Alice Roosevelt Longworth is said to be.
 once told Heflin.

Tom, you'll probably never get married to agree with you but you're the great showman in congress.
 He proved the truth of the latter part of this statement when he appeared before the senate the other day to tell the truth about the Alabama election in which he was deed. He seemed to forget nothing—no one the tricks so much a part of him.

Of course the Heflin-style of dress—that long black coat creamy vest black bot-tie and pulchre-ness on flowing black tie—was in evidence.

But that played a minor part. It was antics of Cotton Tom himself that drew those packed galleries and human of the senate chamber.

Repeated raps of the gavel were necessary to restore order after one of Heflin's Once senator Moore's president pro tem senate warned that if the spectators bediscreet he would order the galleries cleared.

The laughter was provoked when the referred to Black of Alabama as the greatest senator complete. Ignoring Black's claim. And at other times when he and old ability to tell funny stories to a point dropped up the galleries and too were unable to restrain their laughter.</
